TO DELMARCH'S SUBSTITUTE

Lebasco Trots Him a Dead First Heat Close Second and Defeats Him by

DAVENPORT, In., Aug. 3.—The great race for a $10,000 purse offered for a trial between Allerton and Delmarch was run here today before a crowd of

McHenry, Deimarch's owner, substi tuted Lebasco for Delmarch, regarding the former as a faster horse than the latter. Affection Spiehed very lame in the third heat, and failing to appear in the remaining heats, forfeited the race

Lebasco is a stallion owned by James Ladd of Beatrice, Neb., and has a record of 2:16g. The race was run as foi-

First heat-Lebaco to the pole. Both horses scored in line. Labasco led to the three-fourths by several lengths, but Allerton closed the gap on the quarter stretch and they came under the wire noses even. The race was declared a dead heat. Time, 2:15).

Second heat-Both horses scored perfectly. Allerton moved away at the turn and passed the quarter in :34, haif in 1:09, three-quarters in 1:40. In the quarter stretch Lebasco closed the gap and the horses finished neck and neck, Alterion winning by a half length; time, 2:134.

Third heat-Allerton led, keeping several lengths ahead to the back stretch, where he broke, laming badly. Lebasco flaished at 2:17}.

Allerton's Injuries Serious. Davencer, Ia., Aug. 3, 2 a. m. Allerton's injuries are so serious that he will be laid up for the balance of the season. His owner, C. W. Williams of Independence, will lose $100,000 as

NOT A SURPRISE.

Don Leathers Says That Allerton Often

Don J. Leathers was seen by a reporter for THE HERALD last night and when informed of the results at Daven-port, said: "I did not think Labasco would beat Allerton today, but I did that Allerton would be beaten in the race here. There are so many horses entered here that are good ones and are afraid of Allerton alone that they would be put to their best speed in an endeavor to beat him. Labasco is a wonderfully fast horse, but no one supposed that he would beat Allerton. "It is a surprise all around. It was supposed that McHenry, who drove him at Davenport, would drive him here, but I understand he will drive Charleston. Regarding Allerton's lameness, that is nothing unusual. He went lame in his 3-year-old form and it has affected him ever since. He was nearly barred from his race with Margaret S in Detroit two years ago by that same lameness. He will surely trot here next week. Williams has wonderful courage in that respect. He would start Allerton on three legs rather than forfeit that $300 he has put up. He will probably have Allerton in our meeting. It is somewhat of a surprise, yet everyone that knows Allerton knows that he goes lame and soon gets over it. I have seen him so lame in his work that no one would suppose he could trot, and yet he will get out and go a mile in 2.13. I certainly hope he will be in shape to start here and be able to finish the race, although Williams would not forfest the $300 if Allerton was drawn Allerton's leg was in the best shape here in his race with Nelson it has ever been since he first went lame. Wilhams cannot substitute any other horse as Allerton has already been nomi-

The voter cannot cast an intelligent Ballot unless he can appreciate the intricate manipulations of the wheels of government and become conversant to some extent at least with the fundamental facts and theories controlling the various great governmental departments, and he cannot hope to know the character of the chief executive unless he reads an Accurate and Impartial Biography, written and compiled by a Master Litterateur, equal to the difficult Task.

Gen. Benjamin Harrison is a candidate for re-election. The Nation demands that the hero who led its armies in the Field, and who for four years has wisely and nobly steered the ship of state shall contine to hold the helm and guide our Nation through the perils of the future as ably as he has through those of the past. He who during the administration has saved the country from a series of threatening dangers, has brought Italy and Chile to the feet of our Republican throne, and made even England yield to American demands in the Behring Sea difficulty, is the man for the people of these

Gen. Lew Wallace, who is known throughout the United States as one of the most intimate personal friends of President Harrison, and as having had a great deal to do with his re-nomination, has written a biography of the President, which reads like a veritable Romace, yet is Accurate History.

The book has been officially authorized and contributed to by the heads of the government in Articles regarding the workings [of the Republican policy and the Present administration. These distinguished contributors include Hon, William E. Curtis, Hon, John Wanamaker, Hon, Jeremiah Rusk, Secretary Foster and Hon, Eugene Hale. Their topics include commercial Reciprocity, Postal Service, Progress of the Public Domain, Etc.

When General Harrison was asked his choice of a biographer he promptly replied, "My life-long friend, General Wallace." His chief advisors, interpriting the President's desire, have officially supplied the volume with most valuable contributions.
